We may disclose your details to police, regulatory bodies, local authorities, football governing bodies or legal and professional advisors and insurers if so required. If any of the organisations to which we disclose your personal information is situated outside the European Economic Area (EEA) we would take reasonable steps to ensure that your information is properly protected including safeguards such as using contractual provisions to ensure your information is properly protected.

PRIVACY NOTICE HR (RECRUITMENT)

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

We do not share your information with any third party without your agreement unless we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal or tax obligation, or in order to enforce or apply our terms the employment contract; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of MFC or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection.

If your application for employment is successful and We make you an offer of employment, We will at that stage share your data with former employers to obtain references for you, employment background check providers to obtain necessary background checks and the Disclosure and Barring Service to obtain necessary criminal records checks.

Any third party providers used by us to fulfil our contractual obligations to you will only collect, use, store and disclose your information in the manner and to the extent necessary for them to provide their services to us. We have written agreements in place with each third party to ensure that your information is kept securely, is not used for any other purpose and is deleted when no longer required.

Such third party providers may include:

- Cornerstone IT
- HMRC
- HSE

We may share personal information with other organisations such as the Premier League, the English Football League and other governing bodies compliance purposes, research, reporting and improvement of strategic planning and business decisions or funding.

We never sell personal information to third parties.

WHAT IS THE LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESING THE INFORMATION

The legal basis for collecting and processing your data may be:

- Consent – you may have given us your consent to use your data. You can withdraw your consent at any time.
- Contractual obligation – pre-contract checks and entering into and performance of the employment contract with us means we need your personal information (including financial information).
- Legal obligation – if required by law to process personal information for example to comply with employment, social security or social protection law, health and safety and equality obligations, to provide information to the police to prevent fraud or criminal activity and to comply with our HMRC obligations.
- Legitimate interest – for a genuine business reason that does not override your rights, freedom or interests for example administrative purposes.
- To protect another person's vital interest.
- For carrying our public functions or for public interest.

YOUR RIGHTS

PRIVACY NOTICE HR (RECRUITMENT)

You have the right at any time to ask for a copy of the information we hold about you and confirmation of how it is being processed. You will be required to verify your identity when making a request. If you would like to make a request for information please:

Email - data@mfc.co.uk or Send a request in writing to Data Protection Officer, Middlesbrough Football Club, Riverside Stadium, Middlesbrough, TS3 6RS.

You also have the right to:

- request that we correct inaccuracies to your information or complete your information if incomplete. You must notify us of any updates, amendments or corrections to previously collected personal information in writing to HR. This can be via email. We require you to keep the personal information we hold on you up to date and accurate;
- request that we delete some or all of your personal information for example if it is no longer necessary for us to hold it for the purpose it was provided and we have no legal basis to retain it;
- request that we stop or limit the processing of your information where you think the information we hold is inaccurate (until the accuracy is proved or updated); if you have objected to the processing (when it was necessary for legitimate interests); if you have consented to the use of it; or if it is no longer necessary for us to hold it for the purpose it was provided and we have no legal basis to retain it;
- (in certain circumstances) move, copy or transfer your personal information to another organisation or to yourself. This applies only to personal information you have provided us with and is being processed by us with your consent or for performance of a contract and is processed automatically;
- (in certain circumstances) you have the right to object to certain types of processing of your personal information when it is based on legitimate interests, when it is processed for direct marketing including profiling, or when it is processed for the purpose of statistics.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION?

Your personal information will be retained for no longer than is necessary to fulfil the purpose for which we collected it or as required to satisfy any legal or reporting obligation or to resolve a dispute or enforce an agreement.

When We no longer require your personal information, We will dispose of it in line with approved company processes. If personal data is retained for legal or reporting obligations it will be archived and reduced to the minimum information required.

WITHDRAWING CONSENT

If you have provided us with your consent to process your personal information you have the right to withdraw this at any time. In order to do so you should contact us by emailing data@mfc.co.uk.
